I was born in a Meist family but in my growing up I prepared God than other things. Some time I used to go to pray.

One day when I was at school, I asked the priest if I would get baptism here I studied in Catholic school that priest allowed me to be baptised.

I finished secondary school this time God told me that I must change the way that I have chosen before.

So I moved in Catholic church and I went in AEBR church. There was American missionary who wanted the people to preach the word of God. He invited people to sit for exams and me also I was included. There were eighty five people who sat for exam; but only fifteen people wrote the exam also here I was included. Now we are performing the tasks which have been called for due to those above things they make me knowing that here there is University. Therefore I decided that I could come to find skills about bible so as to complete my task as well as God wishes.

Now I am in AEBR church, I am performing the task that I have been given by church.
