I was born in a christian family by name. I did my primary education from a Catholic school where I used to pray without knowing what I was doing. Later on, I came to be baptized in Pentecostal denomination at the age of fifteen. I started to serve the Lord as choir singer.

In 1984, It was at Pentecost day, in the church ADEPR Gakingiro/Kigali, the Holy spirit came to me and felt a deep change and heard a voice "You are now my child" and was convinced that really I am born again; I received Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior, after many years living as Christian by name. In 1995, I went for Theological education for four years. Back I was appointed as church leader of one local church after my ordination. I met so many challenges on my spiritual journey but I thank God because He never forsaken me. I served the Lord ⁴ with all my heart up to now under so many promises including ~~eternal~~ eternal life. John 1:12. 3. Alexis
