I had born in the family of christians from Presbyterian church in Rwanda. A call for confession of sins has been addressed to me when i was in the first year of secondary school by a Missionary from Anglican church.

Four years after the end of secondary school, in 1983, i felt in my heart that i was sinner, that the power of sins was heavy upon my life and that jesus christ is there to deliver me; so i accepted to confess, to invite him in my life; i has born again. I accepted the baptism in the water on june 1989.

Since 1990 up to now, i am a member of Pentecostal church in Rwanda. To believe in the words of God and practicing it within my life allow me to live a christian life that confess with my mouth the lord jesus as my lord and to bear the fruits of the Holy Spirit.
