I was born in the district of BURUNDI, in a family of 12 children because my father was polygamist, our religious views was catholic. I did my primary school in the same district then after, continued secondary school in the district of KIGOMA in a boarding school it was before genocide then after genocide I continued secondary school in the district of KARONZI at RUBENGEA in the former KIBUYE Prefecture and I completed in 1999. After I started doing different works such as doing business, I worked also for a certain insurance company and so on. During this time I did not know God, I used to live according to my choice even if sometimes I went to the catholic church to pray but I knew nothing about salvation. In 2005, I got the chance of knowing about salvation, I started attending a Pentecostal Church called ADEPR, one year later I got baptized in the same church in which I'm serving God today. I started serving God in a choir as a singer then after as a sound engineer of our church. Back in 2005 after I got saved, I felt the need of writing my testimony, and I finished a book in 2013. I praise God for this achievement.

To God Be the glory Amen
