Applicant's Name: INGABIRE Aline
Last/Family First Middle

Instructions: Use this form to write your autobiographical essay.

You need to describe your childhood, education, volunteer experiences, and church involvement including a statement of personal religious faith, your calling to the Christian ministry, summary of ministry experience and an assessment of personal qualifications and gifts for ministry. On top of that, you need to provide a brief statement of your Christian testimony and explain your view of God and how your faith is evident in your life.

I was born and grew up in a family of six children and two parents, at BUKUNSI Country.

After RWANDA genocide of 1994, I come with my parents at KUNDA. I come in Country of Rwanda after finishing my first year of ~~SA~~ Secondary school.

In 1996, after genocide against Tutsi, I went back to school in SA (high school). I continue my bachelor in social sciences at Independent University of KIGALI.

While at school, I receive Jesus Christ in my life. I decided to follow him in 1997 and I was baptized.

I was engaged in ministry in various conferences, where I joined at Christian Choir. I served God since my high school to University, and I become one of Committee member leading others in University school.

Today I serve my God as choir member and worship team.

As checked above, the birth side of my child hood could interfere with my faith, given that some of the perpetrators claimed, to be practicing Christians; however, I came to realize that salvation is personal and that God's grace is sufficient for me.

From then on ward, I dedicated my life to serving Him and living as a living testimony of His indiscriminate love and mercy.

I am blessed to be married to a Christian and together we are serving God and share Christian life in teaching Word of God, singing and social work in ministry. My pleasure in ministry is the assistance of people in social life as gift.

It is in that framework that I joined the UN:MF to sharpen my knowledge in order to make use my gift for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

And my wish is to continue in that sense of studying and searching as well as possible the knowledge that can help me to really serve my God.
