

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL ESSAY

Applicant's name: Safari Eric

In my childhood I was born in Christian's family. my mother and my father both were a Christian and believed in God, they trained me to pray and to serve God. Since 3 year ago when I was young (child) I attended in Sunday School and serving God in Children's choir.

In my education skills I attended in Primary School after Primary school I went in Secondary and I studied mechanic Automobile and I got my degree of my studies Diploma A<sub>2</sub> in Automobile mechanic.

For that studies the Primary School took place Ruhoko in Rusizi District and my Secondary school took place Groupe Scolaire de Gisovu (trunc Commun) Since 1994 up to 2002, in Superior Studies I studied in Samuduha integrated College (S.I.co) after that I got a great opportunity to study in University of World mission frontier's where I am studying now.

I got Volunteer experiences in Secondary school where I led the youth ministry after I got a great chance to lead the youth in Province of Kigali city in the Church of ADEPR (Pante Gost Church of Rwanda. by fortunately after getting married in 2 weeks I am chosen to be a deacon in my Church after that they gave me to be a leader of a prayers in Kigali city. Luckily when I was starting to study in University world mission frontier I have been chosen to be a leader of the Church on the title of evangelist. for that journey of serving God I was helped by the gift of prophecy.

my View of God in that journey of serving God, God revealed me and guided me in that journey and many unbelievers, they receive Jesus Christ as the lord and savior and edification and growth of Church not only that but also on my behalf of my life God Intervene me and I have seen the high might hand of God in in my daily life.
