Instructions: Use this form to write your autobiographical essay.

You need to describe your childhood, education, volunteer experiences, and church involvement including a statement of personal religious faith, your calling to the Christian ministry, summary of ministry experience and an assessment of personal qualifications and gifts for ministry. On top of that, you need to provide a brief statement of your Christian testimony and explain your view of God and how your faith is evident in your life.

In my opinion, I believe that you can't escape God when He wants you to serve Him, and that's what happened to me.

I was born in a Christian family, my Dad was an Evangelist and my mum was a deacon. They used to teach us to read the bible on daily basis.

When I was a kid with less than 10 years old, I used to baptize my fellow children in kid games. That's when I started to realize my calling. Therefore, I started aiming at becoming a pastor one day, and different people prophesied it since my childhood.

I was born again in 1998 in Presbyterian church but I turned into Pentecost church in 2016. It is a long (powerful) testimony to shift from the church of birth and obey God where He wants you to be, but I did.

In my church, I act as evangelist. Indeed, I spread the word of God wherever God calls me to go regardless the church.

Due to the holding of the Bachelor's degree in Accounting, this helps me to support my chapel in sorting out the related financial issues and setting up long term goals.

Thank you and God bless you.
