My Name is HAKIZIMANA Frodouard, I was born in 1989 in the Republic of Rwanda Northern province, Butaro district in Christian family and I am second born. During my childhood, I grew up in Sunday school up to where I was baptized at Secondary School Senior High School. During the genocide against Tutsis, we fled to Democratic Republic of Congo for 10 years. It was that period I started to go to the Sunday School. When we returned to Rwanda, I continued to attend primary school and ordinary level then I finished Secondary school in 2009. After achieving the secondary school studies I passed to study Theology at Rwanda Institute of Evangelical Theology (RIET) by the force of my father. Then after 1st semester I dropped out and went to Catholic University of Rwanda to study Social Work after to finish Bachelor's degree I went to Kenya and Uganda to search the master's of Theology I was miss the opportunity then I return in Rwanda. In 2016 I got information of scholarship of Studies Master's in Divinity at UNIV NT. Briefly, at University in Belcher I performed main following Tasks: - 2010 up to 2017: teacher at Secondary school - 2017 to now up to now: Chairperson of Christian Students Movement. These above responsibilities and Experience show me to know God has the purpose for me to work in the Ministry that why I believe Jesus Christ is my King and savior the way from the heaven.
