

Autobiographical essay

APPLICANT'S NAME: GASENGAYIRE PHILOMENE

My name is gasengayire philomene I am married and I have six children .i was born in Christian family but I received Jesus as my lord and savior when I was 19 years old. I started serving God at age 20 when I was still a young girl .that time I was an evangelist at my church and a leader for 3 years. After all I was lucky to marry a man who was a born again and we are still together till now. I continued to serve the lord and also at the same time taking care of the family .meanwhile I also tried to do my own business for couple of years which the time reached and declined that and continue to be in ministry my calling of serving the lord sustained even today I am serving the Lord and my calling is to evangelize the gospel of Jesus wherever I can and teach people the Godly values and life in this world.

My views of God are that I believe in God the father, Jesus Christ the son and in Holy Spirit. I do also believe the baptism by immersion.

The faith is evident in my life different ways .Because of it I am holding on God's promises believing in them and also my self-esteem is evident due to that faith .and also have faith in Jesus 's promises including his second coming.
