In my childhood I was born in a Christian family both parents were Christians, I was 4th child among 6 children, my parents trained me to attend in church and I attended Sunday school and became a leader song of children. Unfortunately I lost my parent since I was young. Exactly I started to live in difficult life because I had not any one to care me, on that problem I was continuing to serve God in children ministry.

On that case of losing my both parent, my brother took me to study in primary school in 1997 up to 2004 year at Nyakibere primary school. Fortunately I shifted in secondary school from common in 2005 up to 2007 at Ecole secondaire de Bulinga in South Province and Muhang district. I started in superior level 2011 up to 2013 in CIESK Nyarugenge and studied there Accountancy and I got a diploma A2 in Accountancy. Luckily I got a great opportunity to study in University of World Mission frontier at Kigali in 2017 till now I am still studying on that University.

My volunteer experience I have been a teacher of Sunday school for 2 years at Rugarama and I am an evangelist in my ministry as my calling and to rebuke people in ministry with vision as my gift which helps me to serve God.
